

Journey of the Seeds
Biographies

by Daniel Garcia and Nikita Ivanenko

Characters

LEV

23 years old. Short black hair. Not very tall(175-180). Scar under right eye. Patient, cold blooded guy if it is needed, smart in tactics, courageous. Has brother Isaac.

They both were abandoned in the very childhood by their parents. They odd names were given to them by the director of the orphanage, (who was fond of classic literature) where they were grown up. Isaac was called for Isaac Asimov. Lev got his name for Lev Tolstoy.

Lev loves his younger brother and protects him all the time. As time goes by and being 8 years old ISAAC was taken by scientists family. Lev was not. When it's happened Lev run away from orphanage and was trying to find his brother, but got lost in Moscow streets. He was picked up by future(with Lev's help in future) gang leader Anton Losew - a smart and dangerous man who had a lot power in many business spheres, including politics. Lev was taught a lot of things about guns, fighting, turuturing ,interrogation. He kept trying to find his brother using his new leader contacts but doing it in secret. He doesn't trust anyone.

In a few years, when Lev becomes one of the loyal gang members, Losew gives him a order to find a person, whose parents don't want to pay to him. It was Isaac.

ISAAC

21 years. Short brown hair. Glasses. Same height as Lev.

When new parents took Isaac he was 8, so he didn't understand properly why he was split up with Lev. His new parents were scientists. They were working with viruses and they got very close to create a cure from many of them in just one pill. But a foundation was not enough. So they took a "side money" credit. New parent loved Isaak And he loved them back. He became an assistant in their lab. He didn't know about the "contract" which helped his parents to continue their research.

One day, three strangers broke into his flat and kidnapped Isaac.

DIMA -> LETO

Dina is a 20 years old punk who studies at astronomical faculty. In a " day one" he was first who get on meteor landing side and LETO took his place.

Leto was a doctor in middle ages. He was born in family of Italian father (he was both butcher and blacksmith in a same time) and English mother (tailor). All his youth he spend watching and learning his parents work. He was stunned when his father was cutting meat or was smithing some works from metal. And he liked watching his mother work too. A simple idea was born in Leto's head one day. "What if take meat- the thing we all made off, and steel- the most strongest material in the world, and combine them together?" He started with some meat from further storage and than tried his idean on living animals.

As time was going by, Leto started to understand that the animals were not a point. He needed someone who can realize what he was doing. Leto became a doctor. He studied anatomy of humans, the causes and effects of illnesses, cures, health. But anatomy became his true passion. He get to the idea : "we are not complete. It's obvious! So many materials. We want to be changed but we fear it... We are incomplet." And soon he become a roaming doctor. He was traveling all over the Europe. He was searching for the people on the streets and hospitals where he was working and he was making them coplete in his way. He was captured in England, when he visiting his parents again.

In our world he gained a power to "boost" other infective presence in human body and power of other "special reds" like Manuel.

Yuri

22 years, old, student, came from Bryansk to Moskow to become an expert in finance. Smart, honest, modest guy. Loyal to his friends and family. Got infected in the club, but keeps resisting to the soul entered his body.

Igor

39 years, a succesfull bussinesman. Participated in military conflict in Chechnya, knows weapons, tactics. Can be cruel, very stubborn guy. In critical situations, the end justifies the means for him. Married on Maria, 31. His wife was lost during "day one". No one ever saw her again. That made Igor a cold-blooded man who seeks revenge and wishes to kill as many "reds" as he can reach.

Veronique

Eastern-European noble woman from the end of XIX century. Died at the age of 30 (committed cuicide, cause her face was disfigured by her own husband when he had found her with young lover). Stays in the body of Dasha (19, blonde, blue eyes, beautiful girl). Enjoys that body and seeks for the pleasures of the flesh (it's more a psychological desire than the physical one). She changes under the influence of Manuel. Clever, cold-blooded, but can be dangerous.

Dzhitindzhi

A cannibal from lost African tribe. True predator, very aggressive and dangerous. Consumes his enemies. Gathers a pack of psychos like him and obeys to Manuel directly. The trial of going against the Inquisitor costs him a fortune. Exist in our world in a body of office clerk, but tries to wear national dress, including war paint of his tribe. Prefers primitive knives.

Manuel Alvarez (the INQUISITOR)

An inquisitor of Barcelona, who was torn apart by the crowd in the late XVith century. Very smart, quickly-adopting and ruthless man. Obsessed by the idea of purifying Earth from the sinners (actually, a little mad about that). Good leader, who unites several thousands of the "red" under his command. Wishes to serve God, but he's also driven by mortal desires - Veronique, who reminds him of the lost love, who was executed on his eyes 5 hundreds years ago. That fact in process makes Manuel rethink his place in this world. Has access to the Abyss - can hear and feel every soul there and share this feeling to any red he wants to. The victim experience true suffering hearing the howl of millions of souls and in most caces, it dies. Manuel is immune to this effect. Nowadays he is in body of 24 year old yound man (180 cm, short black hair, blue eyes (that reminds Manuel of the girl burned)). Manuel tries to recover his former look, so he makes a triangle beard and wears something that reminds a robe.